

Computerhomefix PRIVACY POLICY.

Created by Computerhomefix 20 May 2018

General data policy summary.

We will never ever use your data or contact details to send you any form of advertising or promotion. In addition we will never pass your information to any 3rd party.

Why do we need information about you?

We would need your data to contact you in response to a request to answer a question by email, and for no other reason.

If you contact us using our Contact Us link, we don't ask for any information, but your Email Address will be sent to us when you send your email to us. We will only use your Email address to reply to your question or request. When there is no further need to continue the email conversation, your Email Address and any other information you email to us, will be deleted in no more than after 4 weeks from the last contact.

Precautions we take with your data.

Computerhomefix uses 1 Apple Mac computer to process email. The system is always running the latest Apple updates and is password protected both for login and resume from standby. The computer is put into sleep when not being used and requires a password only known by one employee to enter the computer.

What data do we hold about you?

If you would like to see what information we may hold on you, then please send an email to info@computerhomefix.com, with your name and email and we will reply with any details we have on your information.

Cookies.

We do not use Cookies in our site.
